Bugs—Dr. Waterman gives in the "Cleveland Herald," his mode of catching the bee-millier or moth. He says, "I took two white dishes, (I think white attracts their attention in the night,) & deep plates, and placed them on the top of the hives, and filled them about half full of sweetened vinegar.—The next morning I had about fifty millers caught; the second night I caught fifty more; the third night being cold I did not catch any; the fourth night being very warm, I caught about four hundred; the fifth night I got two hundred. Most of these were most likely bee-moths."

Body—The body of John Gordon (lately executed for murder) was taken yesterday afternoon from the tomb at the North Burying Ground in this city, and carried to Pawtucket, where it was buried in the Roman Catholic Cemetery. An immense concourse of his countrymen followed the body. [Providence Transcript, Monday.]

DAY BOAT ON LAKE CHAMPLAIN—The traveling public will be glad to learn that on and after the 29th inst., there will be a day-boat running on Lake Champlain. The Francis Sultus, a new steamer and representative to be very fine one, will leave Whitehall at 7 o'clock in the morning, arriving at St. Johns at 4 in the afternoon and thus enabling travelers to reach Montreal the same night. [Albany Journal.]

ACCIDENT—Archbishop Eccleston met with a serious accident on Saturday evening, owing to the running away of the horse in his vehicle. Upon starting the horse knocked the driver down and ran off—the Archbishop shortly after jumped from the carriage and by doing so fell and injured himself very severely, cutting his hand in two or three places.
